GLENELG RIVER CRUISES

Come aboard the cosy cabin of the Nelson Endeavour to enjoy a sit down meal whilst admiring the longest tidal estuary, which is the Glenelg River. Set in the Lower Glenelg National Park, the cruise ventures through spectacular limestone cliffs, past quaint river shacks and amongst the friendly birdlife. Established in 1978, Glenelg River Cruises which is family owned and operated business, specialises in group charters as requested.
