NARRAPUMELAP HOMESTEAD

Narrapumelap, built in 1873 by John Dixon Wyselaskie is recognised as one of the best examples of French Gothic style in rural Australia and the tower is the tallest tower on a single storeyed domestic structure in Australia. Beautiful, detailed stained glass and plasterwork along with beautiful cast iron lions, a dramatic walled walkway to the outbuildings will impress. The mile-long driveway is entered through immense cast iron gates on blue stone piers that stand adjacent to an exquisite gatehouse.
