KINGFISHER BAY RESORT

Kingfisher Bay Resort is World Heritage-listed Fraser Island's premiere eco accommodation, and the gateway to some of Queensland's most spectacular wildlife and diverse landscapes.

As the world's largest sand island, and stretching over 123 kilometres, Fraser Island's pristine natural environment is characterised by vast golden sand blows, over 100 freshwater lakes, and the iconic 75 Mile beach highway along the eastern coast. This must-see destination is home to an array of unique wildlife, including Australia's purest strain of dingoes and over 354 species of birds.

Situated along the western bay of Fraser Island, Kingfisher Bay Resort is nestled amongst tree covered dunes, blending seamlessly into the native surrounds. The resort overlooks the calm waters of the Great Sandy Strait, with the tranquil atmosphere offering guests a relaxing and immersive back-to-nature experience.

Features

Property Facilities

The esteemed eco resort provides a range of accommodation types and room configurations tailored to suit all travellers or groups, from resort hotel rooms with bushland and bay views, to self-contained two and three-bedroom villas, featuring spacious private decks overlooking the World Heritage-listed landscape.

Kingfisher Bay Resort offers three dining outlets, including the renowned Seabelle Restaurant, with its award-winning bush tucker-inspired cuisine. A host of additional facilities include four bars, four swimming pools, an Island Day Spa, and a general store.

Entertainment

Kingfisher Bay Resort is the perfect base for exploring Fraser Island's breathtaking natural sights, with guided 4WD tours departing daily. Discover the island's 'Beauty Spots', such as the famed Lake McKenzie, ancient rainforests, striking cliffs of coloured sands, and the historic ruins of the Maheno shipwreck. Guests can also join our rangers for daily nature-guided walks and talks, to explore the resort's native wallum and coastal surrounds.

From August to October each year, guests can embark on a morning whale-watching cruise, to experience breathtaking up-close encounters with the magnificent humpbacks, as they migrate along the Fraser coast.
