SOUTH AUSTRALIAN WHALE CENTRE

The award winning South Australian Whale Centre is centrally located in the popular seaside town of Victor Harbor, Fleurieu Peninsula. The state's largest whale and marine focussed interpretive centre, boasts a myriad of interactive, educational and fun exhibits across 3 levels. This iconic tourism attraction is also the only tourism based sighting information source for Cetaceans (whales, dolphins and porpoises) in SA. A guided tour includes history of Victor Harbor, whaling days and our heritage listed building. Learn about different types of whales including the Southern Right which visits the South Coast.
